

Who Do I Confess My Sins To?

Blessed Is He Whose Sins Are Covered

I acknowledged my sin unto You, and my iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions TO THE LORD; and You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Psalm 32:5

King David said he confessed his sin to God. This is the most important thing to do when it comes to confessing our sins. If you were to confess your sins to some people, you could actually be putting a stumbling block before them and giving them information they cannot handle. Many people cannot handle to hear of the sins of others because of their spiritual immaturity, and they can end up in gossip and violating love. At times it's actually an act of love to not broadcast your sins or the sins of others. James said, "Confess your faults ONE to ANOTHER." Both are in the singular, ONE to ANOTHER!

Bringing Up Past Sins Is A Sin

A person is not obligated before God to confess his or her sins to more than the immediate parties involved. The world is not our example to follow. They have no problem broadcasting the faults of others all over the evening news, but it is not God's plan they do. Bad news sells, and boy do they sell it! David said, after Saul's ultimate fall, "Don't PUBLISH it. Tell it not!" David did not want Saul's reputation mocked by the enemies of the Lord even after all the evil Saul did against David. No wonder David was such a man after God's heart.

The purpose of confession is to restore, not punish, the offender. Discretion is a must when it comes to knowing who else to confess your sins to.

Love covers a multitude of sins. 1 Peter 4:8

Jesus said,

What does it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?

Salvation Prayer

Jesus, I believe in You. I believe You died for my sins. I believe God raised You from the dead. I know that I am now saved because You did not lie. I will spend eternity with You. Thank You, Jesus. Amen.

John 3:16

God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes In Him shall not perish, but have everlasting life."
